

THE RCRA INSPECTION

Introduction

CEI Purpose

CEI Steps

Frequency of CEI

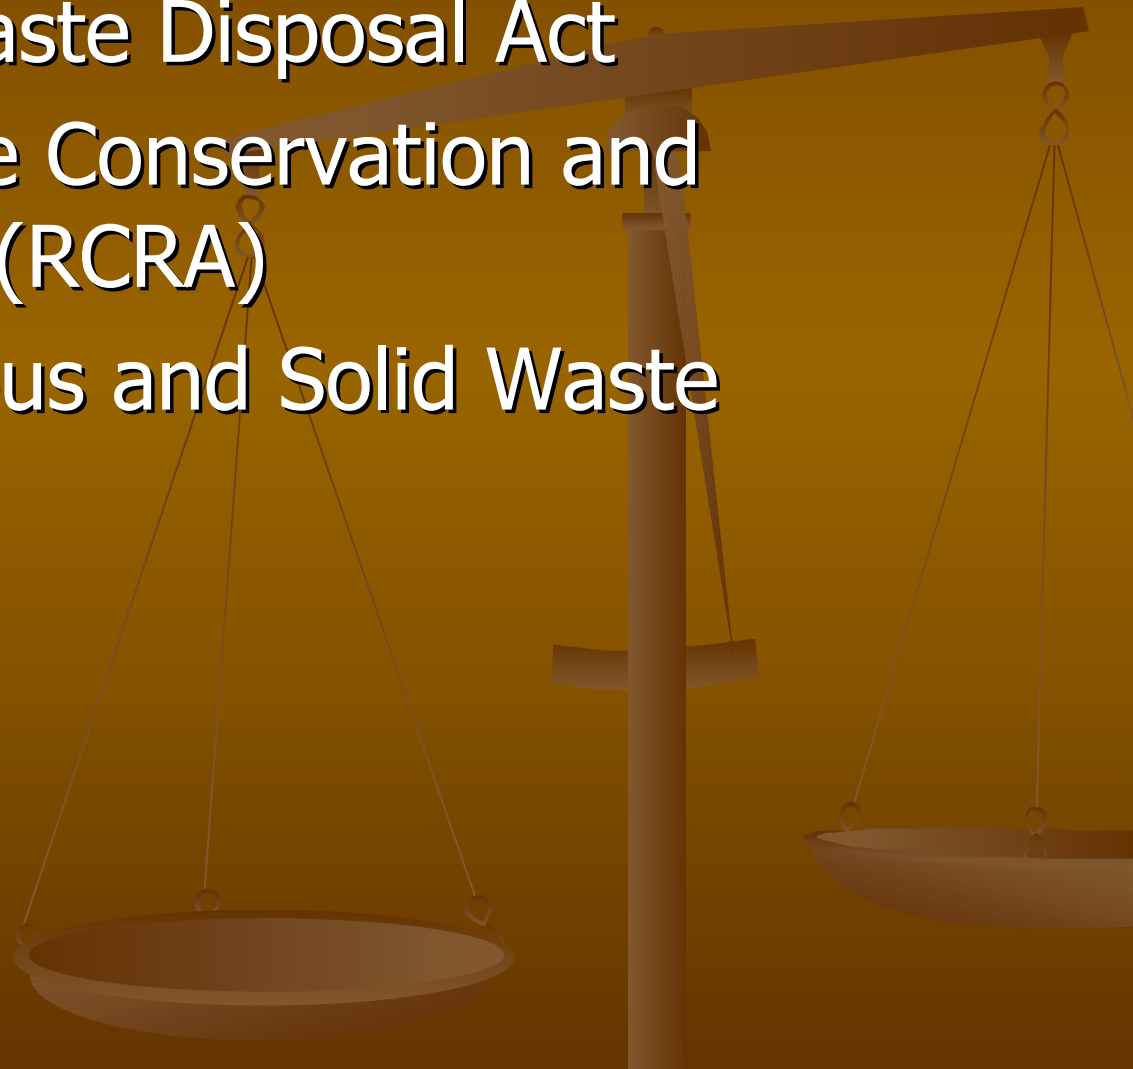

CEI Authority

Result of CEI

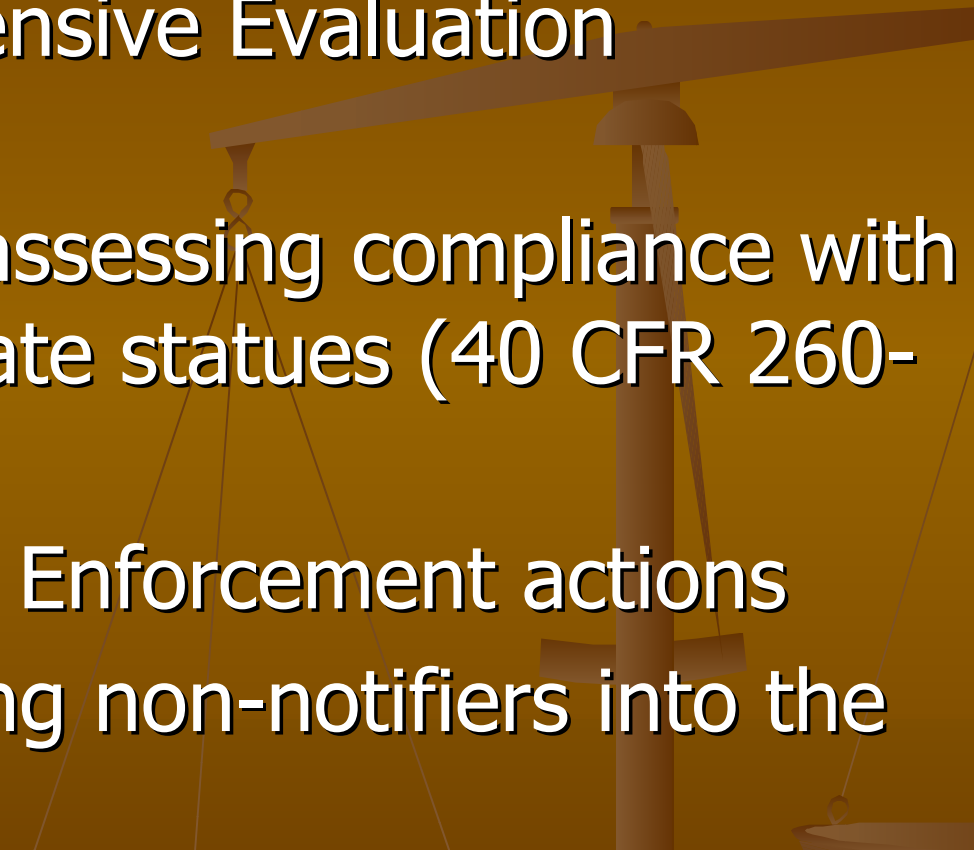

Introduction

- 1965 – Solid Waste Disposal Act
- 1976 - Resource Conservation and Recovery Act – (RCRA)
- 1984 – Hazardous and Solid Waste Amendments

CEI Purpose

- CEI – Comprehensive Evaluation Inspection
 - Mechanism for assessing compliance with Federals and State statues (40 CFR 260-270)
 - Used to support Enforcement actions
 - Identify and bring non-notifiers into the RCRA program
-

IN CASE OF AN
OIL OR HAZARDOUS MATERIAL SPILL
CALL BASE FIRE DEPARTMENT
ON BASE 911 OFF BASE 911
Do not pour fuel into water or fire. Do not use fuel for anything other than its intended purpose.
Do not use fuel for anything other than its intended purpose.

POL

site

NINETY

DAY

site

HAZARDOUS
MATERIAL
GREASE

HAZARDOUS
MATERIAL
GREASE

A Co

CEI Steps

- Site tour of processes focusing on waste generation, storage, treatment, and disposal areas.
- Review required records, including waste determinations, inspections, manifests, training records, waste minimization reports, and contingency plan.

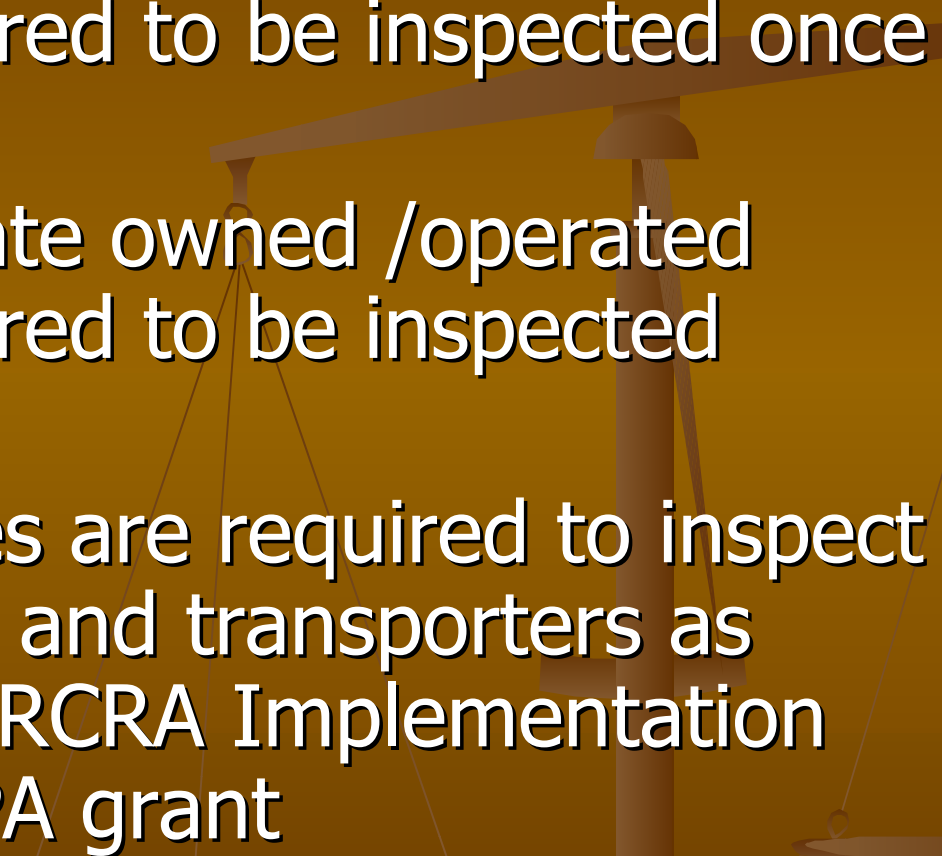

ALL WASTE
IN DAY CITY
TWO HOURS
ATTENTION PERSONS
1001
IN 1000

ALL WASTE
IN DAY CITY
TWO HOURS
ATTENTION PERSONS
1001
IN 1000

ALL WASTE
IN DAY CITY
TWO HOURS
ATTENTION PERSONS
1001
IN 1000

Frequency of CEI

- TSDFs are required to be inspected once every two years
 - All federal or state owned /operated TSDFs are required to be inspected annually
 - Authorized states are required to inspect their generators and transporters as required by the RCRA Implementation Plan or State/EPA grant
-

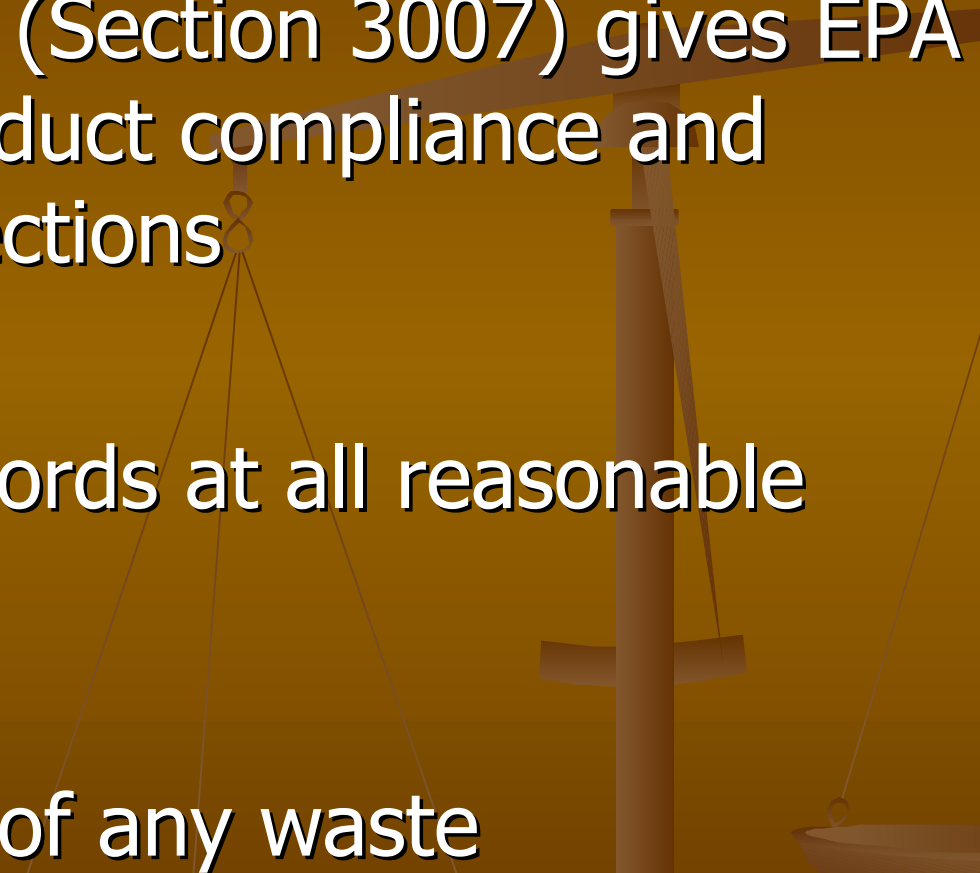

8
TOXIC

HAZARD
DANGER

HAZARD
DANGER

HAZARD
DANGER

CEI Authority

- RCRA Subtitle C (Section 3007) gives EPA authority to conduct compliance and evaluation inspections
 - Access to all records at all reasonable times
 - Obtain samples of any waste
-

Result of CEI

- Letter documenting no violations found
 - A warning letter
 - A Notice of Violation
 - This may result in a warning letter
 - This may result in an enforcement action such as an administrative order requiring a payment of a penalty
 - A permit denial or modification
 - A criminal investigation or action
- 